INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE SUNDAY

*Acts 2:1-11 * 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Romans 8:8-17 * John 20:19-23 or John 14:15-16, 23b-26*

Today is Pentecost, the birthday of the Church, honoring the coming of the Spirit into our midst. The early Church was expanded when the resurrected Jesus left his disciples, promising to send the Holy Spirit to be with them on earth. Empowered by his presence among them, they began preaching the word even though they faced many challenges. The people listened and were baptized, and the Church was born. ●● In the first reading, the Apostles are filled with the Holy Spirit and begin speaking in different languages. Paul writes to the Corinthians that there is only one Spirit, but he bestows many spiritual gifts on the family of God. In the Gospel, Jesus comes to disciples in the locked room, offers them peace, & breathes on them, saying, receive the Holy Spirit.

Jesus fulfilled his promise to send the Spirit to dwell among us. Pentecost is celebrated as the birthday of the Church. When the Apostles were gathered together, the Holy Spirit came to them as a strong wind, descending upon them as tongues of fire. Inspired and empowered by the Spirit, Peter and the others began preaching the word. We are told later in this chapter, in Acts 2:41, that about three thousand persons were baptized that day. The Church was born. ● Over 2000 years later, Jesus is still alive in the world and the Spirit continues to work through us, his followers. It must have been something to be in that room when the Holy Spirit entered into the midst of the disciples gathered there! Though that must have been amazing, the truth is that the Spirit is still present today. He comes to us as well. You and I are ordinary people capable of extraordinary things because of the power of the Spirit in us and in the world. His grace inspires us to spread his word, care for those in need, comfort those who suffer, and to live as believers in this world in need of God's love. ● Birthdays are often an occasion for gift-giving. Pentecost is no exception. The Holy Spirit bestows abundant spiritual gifts on believers. These gifts may not come in a brightly wrapped box, but their worth is beyond measure.
