Camp Ministry in the Catholic Archdiocese of Edmonton has a rich history. Many young people have built lasting friendships and experienced the truth, beauty, and goodness of the Catholic faith at one of our camps. We're so excited to announce that in 2022, a team of youth & camp ministry veterans (including Mike Landry, Jeannette Manser, and Peter van Kampen) will be hosting Catholic Youth Camps at the beautiful Camp Oselia on Wabamun Lake. We're preparing three weeks jam-packed with epic games, sports, swimming, laughter, great food, learning about the faith, and prayer... all done while spending time in the beauty of God's creation. The cost for a week of camp this year is $295 per camper per week. Grade 10-12 students can also volunteer as a junior counselor for one of the other weeks in the summer. For more information on our camps program, please visit <https://www.caedm.ca/camps>.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE SUNDAY

*Isaiah 66:10-14c * Galatians 6:14-18 * Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 or 10:1-9*

Our encounter with Christ transforms us for the sake of the world. The Gospel tells of Jesus sending out the first disciples with a mission of healing and peace – a task that now belongs to the baptized. As we gather today in worship, may our encounter with Christ change our hearts and strengthen us to be instruments of peace and mercy in our world. ●●●●●●●● Isaiah prophesies the wealth and prosperity that Jerusalem will once again have. In the second reading, Paul states that he has nothing to boast about except the cross of Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus sends out the disciples in his name with a mission of healing and Good News.

As Christians we are both disciples and apostles – called to imitate Christ and sent to share his message. It is not uncommon to hear the words disciple and apostle interchangeably. They do not mean exactly the same thing. Today’s Gospel helps us to understand them and how they relate to our Christian identity. Jesus, having previously called the Twelve and sent them out to preach and heal, is now sending seventy-two more disciples – again with the same message and task. ● So, what is the difference between the two? By definition, a disciple is one who learns from or follows: a student. It is the root of the word “discipline.” Each of us, by our baptism, is made a disciple of Christ. An apostle, on the other hand, is one who is sent forth – to preach and share the teachings of another with others. These two titles, or descriptions, are different and yet related – for clearly, one must be a disciple before being an apostle. Otherwise, what would one have to share and preach? ● Saint Paul, writing to the Galatians, knew the difference and fully embraced both identities. Having begun as a persecutor, Paul encountered Christ on the road to Damascus and experienced a radical conversion to being a follower of Christ. Through that first life-changing moment and then, through the witness of the other disciples and the community in Damascus, Paul is equipped to be both disciple and apostle. ● Historically, the Scriptures – and the Church – have reserved the use of the word Apostle, with a capital “A,” to refer to the Twelve – or, with a lower case “a,” to mean those of Jesus’ time who were sent with the authority of Christ to evangelize. All Apostles are disciples, but not all disciples are apostles. More colloquially, many of us may have heard it said that “we become disciples by our baptism and apostles (lowercase “a”) at our confirmation.” ● Despite this lesson in etymology and historical usage, the focus here is really less on the “titles” and more on the roles. We, too, must first embrace the Gospel and make it our own – become that disciple who not only knows its challenges and joys but is intentional about living out its mandates on a daily basis. Only then can we be prepared to embrace our identity as apostles – who go forth as missionary disciples to share the Gospel with others.
